NAME THAT SAINT

This Saint was a feisty soul who struggled with a temper. He was second only to St. Augustine in his writing—translating the Bible to the Latin Vulgate. He is patron of anger management, Bible scholars, and librarians.

Post your answer by calling 668-9040 or online at jewell@vyn.midco.net and win a rosary ring!

St. Maria Goretti was the Saint to name in June

Rocks have found a place in many situations in early Christian life. Saint Stephen, the first Martyr, was stoned to death; David slew Goliath with a stone....and so on. At the Shrine, rocks have been collected, and a wall is about to take shape.

Thanks to a generous family who believes Life is important!!

Enter the Garden, and find treasures to behold.

Construction of a rock retaining wall east of the Rosary Pond begins. Steve, the engineer of the project, and his wife Mary look on from the steps as the pumper truck stretches out to fill the footings. What a labor of love this has become for the Schweitzer family and friends.

May God Bless All!

Keep your eyes out for a MOTHER deer and her twin babies. They have been seen crossing the road onto the Shrine hillside. What a beautiful sight! (A couple of bucks with great racks have also been sighted!)
