Fifty teachers and administrators from Cedar Catholic Schools spent a day in retreat at the Shrine. What a blessing for us...and them to them to start their year at the Shrine. Sister, in the background, found a seed pod she wanted to study, but it was far too high in the tree!

The barn swallows nested on the Chapel deck, and created a mess, but once the little ones hatched we couldn't destroy their home. Thursday night I went to lock up and found 2 of the babies sitting nearby....afraid to "take off." The parents coaxed and nudged, but the light faded. Early Friday we checked and they were still uncertain of their wings; later, however, we found they were venturing short distances; and by now I'm sure they are pros! It made me think that many of us Catholics don't quite trust our "wings" in sharing our faith, afraid to take the plunge, but hopefully we will take small ventures with the coaxing of the Holy Spirit, and soar, spreading our good news to all who will listen.

COFFEE IN THE LITTLE HOUSE OF MARY
The Cedar Catholic retreat started at 9:00 on a Monday, so coffee was moved to the Little House of Mary. What a delightful setting it was!

A popular old song we could sing of our Lord....goes like this: "To know, know, know him is to love, love, love him, and I do, and I do, and I do."

NAME THAT SAINT.... She was born to wealth, gave that up. She passed out bread to the poor, and when her husband came by, she opened her apron and out fell roses. The answer can be found on one of the pillars in the "Way of the Saints."

Russ and Jean would like to thank everyone who made their anniversary so special.
